IN THE MATTER OF)	NO. 11-014
)
JASON EBELSHEISER, D.C.,)	MOTION TO CONTINUE HEARING
License No. 06743)
Respondent.)

COMES NOW, the above-named respondent, by and through his attorneys, Gregory Racette and Amy Roller, and for his motion to continue the hearing in this matter pursuant to 645 Iowa Administrative Code § 11.18(17A), states the following:

- (1) Attorney Leon Spies had been previously representing Respondent concerning this matter.
- (2) That for reasons unknown to the undersigned, Mr. Spies did not communicate the licensing procedure to Respondent.
- (3) The undersigned were recently retained to represent Respondent within the last week, and as a result, have just learned of this matter.
- (4) Respondent has agreed to voluntarily surrender his license as demonstrated by the letter attached herein, marked Exhibit A.
- (5) It is the undersigned's understanding a voluntary surrender of the license qualifies for reinstatement one year after the date of surrender absent terms and conditions of the order or an order for permanent revocation pursuant to 645 Iowa Administrative Code 11.31(272C), and the State has indicated it seeks a revocation to occur.
- (6) The undersigned need additional time to conference with Respondent to see if a settlement may be reached, which we believe it can.

(7) That the undersigned request the hearing be continued until the next board meeting in April of 2012.

(8) That, if this motion is denied, Respondent requests, pursuant to 645 Iowa Administrative Code 11.19(17A), that the hearing be closed to the public.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons stated above in compliance with 645 Iowa Administrative Code § 11.18(17A), Respondent respectfully requests the Board grant his motion to continue the hearing.
